

A HORRIBLE GIFT

Piece of Human Flesh Sent to Dr. Broughton.

Accompanied by a Letter From Palmetto, Ga., Warning Him to Leave Atlanta in Six Days—Will Stand His Ground—Tabernacle Damaged.

Rev. Dr. Len. G. Broughton, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church, Atlanta, Ga., is well and favorably known in this section, having conducted revival meetings at Freeman Street and Park Avenue Baptist Churches, in this city, and in Portsmouth. Therefore, anything concerning him not only possesses interest for the people not only of Virginia, but of Eastern North Carolina, where he was born and reared.

Last Tuesday Dr. Broughton received in Atlanta, through the mail, a package purporting to come from a committee of Palmetto citizens, containing a piece of the flesh of Sam Hose, and a letter of warning, notifying the minister that he would be given six days in which to leave the city. Dr. Broughton is highly indignant at having received the package and says that it simply bears out the statement he made from the pulpit Sunday night, the 23d instant, condemning the action of the mob at Newnan.

The letter which accompanied the flesh of the negro was obscene in the extreme, and among other things, called Dr. Broughton a "dog," an "old devil," and stated that he was held in contempt and condemned by all good women in the community at Palmetto.

Along with the flesh were several onions, some lettuce and salad, and the note stated that as Dr. Broughton admired Sam Hose so much as to defend him from the pulpit, that the committee recommended that he have the flesh made into a Brunswick stew.

Dr. Broughton has no idea who mailed the package and it is impossible to tell just where it was received in the mail, as neither the letter nor package bore a post mark. It had evidently been posted on the train. After reading the note and seeing the contents of the package, Dr. Broughton destroyed both. It was stated by the minister that the piece of negro meat was about the size of a hen's egg, and was a most horrible looking object.

WHAT HE SAYS:

In speaking of the matter to a representative of the Atlanta Journal, Dr. Broughton said:

"The mere fact that the people of Palmetto mailed that package and letter to me goes to show that my remarks in regard to the Newnan outrage are proper, and that the mob who handled Sam Hose were only trying to satisfy their desire for human blood.

"It was certainly a very unscrupulous and thoughtless crowd. This is borne out by the fact that, not satisfied with murdering a human beyond description, they try to carry their work further by threatening ministers of the gospel with obscene letters and the like.

"Of course I do not intend leaving Atlanta, and when the six days have passed away I think my friends will find me just where I have been for some time.

THE TABERNACLE DAMAGED.

Atlanta, Ga., May 1.—The Baptist Tabernacle, at the corner of Harris and Luckie streets, provided over by Rev. L. G. Broughton, was broken into some time during last night and considerably damaged. A door leading into the Sunday-school room from an alley was wrenched from its hinges, a large tank in a toilet room burst, and water ran over the floor and walls. Several chairs and a table were broken and piled in a heap. Placards were found nailed to the building bearing various sentiments regarding Dr. Broughton's stand against the Newnan affair.

PITTSBURG, 5; ST. LOUIS, 7.

Pittsburg, May 1.—The St. Louis proved themselves better mud-batters than the Pittsburgers, and won the game in the first two innings, while a pelting rain was on. After the rain Leever only allowed them two hits and no runs. Attendance, 2,200.

the field, and both twirlers were in fine fettle, Klobedanz having a shade the better of the pitching. Up to the eighth inning but three scratch singles had been made off the Bostonian's delivery, when, with one out, Robinson sent one to deep left field for two bases. Nops struck out, but McGraw's single sent Robby home with the only run of the game. Boston had several opportunities to score, but fine pitching and fast fielding killed all their chances.
